

Student Travel Award Application
Application Deadline: May 31, 2016

Student travel awards are available to help students attend the International Conference on Questionnaire Design, Development, Evaluation, and Testing (QDET2), which is sponsored by the American Statistical Association and taking place November 9–13, 2016, in Miami, Florida.

Eligible students will be in a terminal degree program (bachelor's, master's, or doctorate) in statistics, survey methodology or research, or a related field.

Name: _____

Email: _____ Phone number: _____

Mailing address: _____

Degree program (e.g., BA/BS, MA, MS, PhD, etc.): _____ Expected graduation date: _____

Institution: _____ Department: _____

U.S. state or country of the institution if outside the U.S.: _____

Thesis adviser and/or program director, if applicable: _____

Have you submitted a paper or poster abstract for QDET2? Yes No

If yes, title and abstract ID: _____

Format of presentation: Invited paper Contributed paper E-poster

Brief (up to 2,000 characters, including spaces) statement of need for travel assistance and how QDET2 may affect and benefit your study or research: